ATLANTIC CABLE.

Boss Tweed Despondent.

VIGO Spain, Sept 26—The U S steamer Franklin arrived here this morning. Tweed was much depressed when told that the Franklin was to take him to the United States. He hoped, on arriving at Cuba to be got off through the assistance and influence of friends and to avoid being surrendered to the American authorities He expressed great disappointment at the aspect on the arrival of the Franklin Mr Adee acting minister of the United States, in the absence of Gen Cushing, went on board to confer with her commander regarding the proposed transfer of Tweed and Hunt to the Franklin The intention is to remove the prisoners from their present quarters to the steamer this evening During their confinement in Castella de Costa Tweed and Hunt were kept in separate rooms, closely guarded and not allowed to communicate with each other Captain Graly issued strict orders that no one should be allowed to speak to them Mr Adee has been warned that Tweed might make away with himself rather than return to New York The commander of the Franklin has therefore been instructed to keep him strictly confined, and leave him no opportunity to jump overboard

Tweed Placed on board the Franklin.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27—A dispatch from Vigo states that Tweed was removed last evening from his for tress prison Castilo Del Caste where he had been confined for two days, to the U S frigate Franklin Tweed offered very little objection He was treated with every consideration and the quarters of Rear Admiral Case were assigned him Tweed's companion Wm Hunt, was taken on board the Franklin, but was almost immediately set at liberty Hunt, after his release was very reticent and still maintains that his friend Secor was not Tweed Hunt after leaving the Franklin went immediately to see an American friend at the Hotel Europa, registered [illegible] under the name of R. Sands. Sands is believed to be Tweed's son There was much [illegible]position to the surrender of Tweed and the action of the government was almost universally condemned. Hunt speaks well of the treatment he and his friend received from the Spanish authorities They were not allowed to communicate with each other and were closely guarded but otherwise they received every courtesy and attention The hour for the departure of the Franklin is set for two this afternoon and it is calculated that the voyage to New York will take about thirty days, as, wherever possible, sail instead of steam will be used, in [illegible]quence of the Franklin not having the capacity to carry coal enough for a long voyage

Earl Derby on the Eastern Question

LONDON Sept 27—A deputation headed by the Lord Mayor presented to Earl Derby to-day the resolutions passed at a meeting on the Eastern question at Guild Hall on the 18th inst. Earl Derby said You may be sure that the government cannot under rate the strength of the popular feeling which undoubtedly has shown itself so strongly in the last few weeks with regard to the Bulgarian atrocities I apprehend we all agree in principle as to what ought to be done I shall in a few days be able to publish a dispatch which has been sent to Sir Henry Elliott British ambassador at Constantinople He has been directed to interview the Sultan and lay the facts fully and unreservedly before him to denounce by name the persons indicated by Mr Baring as the principal authors of the atrocities and call for their punishment. He has also been directed to represent the urgent necessity for relieving the sufferings caused by the atrocities Special attention is to be given to the numerous cases of the abduction of women They must be searched for and restored to their homes In regard to the question of convoking Parliament, Lord Derby pointed out that this was a course which was only adopted under the most urgent circumstances such as declaration of war In the present instance we are not at war nor in the least likely to be so We have no urgent measures to propose to Parliament. It is useless to summon Parliament to influence the negotiations for if things go as smoothly as we hope it is possible and probable that all the most material points will have been settled between the Powers before Parliament could possibly meet. It is conceivable that a state of things might arise so fraught with danger as to necessitate the summoning of Parliament though I am bound to say such a state of affairs does not appear probable to me I do not think you will see the peace of Europe disturbed or the Turkish empire broken up

Lord Derby then discussed the various policies advocated and then said I think we may look for the possible solution in the direction of local autonomy I don't conceal that it will be difficult to make such reforms work but I believe it possible and practicable The objects for which we labor are the equal treatment of Mohammedans and Christians the security of life and property and the effectual guaranty against the repetition of the outrages. I do not wish to disguise that the atrocities have to a certain extent changed the position not only of this but of every European government in regard to Turkey I think it not necessary to express any opinion in regard to the merits of the war begun by Servia and Montenegro but as neither side has obtained any decisive success they may fairly treat the matter as a drawn game and revert to the status quo ante bellum Lord Derby concluded as follows I confidently believe we shall see this matter brought to an issue without any further effusion of blood Do not imagine you can settle the Eastern question by saying what you wish done The question is what under the circumstances possibly can be done

Emperor William on the Eastern Question.

Austrian View of the Proclamation of Prince Milan

VIENNA Sept. 27—The Political Correspondence concludes a semi official article on the proclamation of Prince Milan as King as follows The Austro Hungarian government cannot allow any doubt to be entertained on one point, namely that it would in no case be inclined to recognize the title of King if it were conferred on Prince Milan and that all the principal consequences sought to be drawn from such an act would encounter its determined protest

Servian Political News.

LONDON Sept. 27—A special from Simonez to the Evening Standard says the Servian government has yielded to the pressure put upon it by General Tchernayeff Minister Ristics refuses to accept the prolongation of the armistice for eight days and in point of fact hostilities have now recommenced The proclamation of Prince Milan as King is expected very shortly M Ristics, Servian Foreign Minister last night sent a note to the English and Italian Consuls recapitulating the complaints against the Turks for breaches of the armistice, and pointing out that these breaches would continue to occur if hostilities were merely suspended for eight days as proposed by the Porte The note of M Ristics concludes as follows I take the liberty of requesting you to make known that the Princely Government regrets that it has been unable to order the prolongation of a state of things which experience has shown to be impracticable The government at the same time expresses an earnest wish for the continuation of a formal armistice under such conditions and of such duration as would lead to the attainment of the end in view namely peace At a council of ministers held yesterday over which Prince Milan presided it was unanimously decided to reject the conditions of peace recently elaborated by the Powers and the Porte The council also resolved that Servia should not submit, except in event of foreign occupation and should fight until the independence of Servia and Bosnia is secured The Servians yesterday burned two bridges which had been thrown over the Morava by the Turks There were also some engagements between the outposts of the Servians and the Turkish armies

WALLA WALLA FAIR

From the Walla Walla papers we glean The Second Annual Fair opened on the 19th with an opening address. The Fair ground, owned and put in order by Mr. Charles Bush, is all the most fastidious could desire in every respect Neither time, labor nor expense have been spared to make it convenient, [illegible] and worthy of the name it bears

James Foster's beautiful $5,000 team was there, also his fine mare Messenger. John F. Jones, with his splendid two-year old Clydesdale Joseph Kelly with a fine bay, Morgan stock Frank Shelton, trotter, Patchen stock, Robert Kennedy's Dexter, H Markum's fine saddle horse then the splendid thoroughbred Durham bulls entered by Messrs J. M. Pomeroy James Ireland, Hardy, Lauden and Smith. They are monarchs in appearance, and the owners feel justly proud of them, Messrs M Evans, N F Right, Charles Brown and E N Colwell have a splendid display of fine improved porkers. Messrs. Sw[illegible]y and Bush fill the bill in the sheep line in a creditable manner, and a number of fine blooded cows and calves fill every stall.

A gentleman from the Touchet sent in some 27 varieties of apples, besides several varieties of pears and peaches, and some beautiful grapes some of the Black Hamburgs weigh over three pounds, also some yellow egg plums that looked like goose eggs.

Philip Ritz has on exhibition some 12 varieties of pears, 30 of apples and 21 of grapes—63 varieties—all correctly named. His grapes are remarkably fine, particularly the Flessing, Toquet, Black Hamburg, and some Early [illegible] varieties, which he has [illegible] from Hungary, we believe, the flavor of which is magnificent.

It is well enough to talk of elevating the tone of social conversation but when a well meaning young man tries to introduce protoplasm as a subject, at a little gathering and finds that everybody thinks he is referring to a new kind of plaster and consider him indelicate in doing so he is apt to feel that the life of the reformer is a kind of perpetual picnic on an ant-hill —Norwich Bulletin

The Daily Oregonian.

THURSDAY MORNING, SEPT. 28, 1876.

SAMUEL, COME TO THE FRONT.

Mr. Tilden must now come to the front in his own proper person. Proxies will not answer. The U. S. circuit court at Providence, Judge Clifford of the supreme court presiding, having rendered a decision to the effect that an action may be maintained by the government to recover the amount of income withheld by persons who declined to make income return and were assessed by the assessor on other information, a circular order has been issued directing suits to be instituted in such cases throughout the country. This hits Mr. Tilden's case exactly. It is therefore more than likely he will have to come forward and make a truthful exhibit of his receipts wrongfully withheld from the government.

Mr. Sinnott's explanation or justification of the course of Mr. Tilden in declining to make any return for so many years, is that he had his option under the law, either to give in his return, or leave it to the assessor to estimate and add the penalty, and that he chose the latter course. That explanation, utterly without foundation in morals, is equally without foundation, according to the decision above referred to, and which is manifestly correct. Sinnott must try again, or rather he must stand aside and let Mr. Tilden himself take the matter in hand.

The propriety of this proceeding by the Government just at this juncture will be criticised by the Democratic papers, which will charge that the object is to make campaign capital out of it. But the answer is, that the agitation caused by the disclosure of Tilden's fraud has led to the discovery of similar cases elsewhere, and the prosecution is commenced at once as it ought to be. It may answer the purpose of the campaign and affect the election, as it should do, but it is enough to say of the position of the Government in the matter that the duty of its officers, not having discovered and prosecuted these cases sooner, is to prosecute them now, instead of waiting, from motives of delicacy, till prosecution may become unavailing.

MR. LANE AND HIS RAG-BABY.

Hon. Lafayette Lane would in all probability have improved his chances for an election to Congress by staying at Washington during the recess of Congress. Instead of explaining his vote for the repeal of the resumption act, at which Democrats in Oregon were justly indignant, he comes out now, if we are correctly informed, as a genuine repudiationist and disciple of greenback Billallen. He out-herods Herod in his rag-baby utterances. The equitable adjustment ab[illegible] of the Oregon Democracy in 1870, [illegible] the embodiment of both wisdom and [illegible] compared to his speeches. "Why [illegible] the principal of the public [illegible] be paid in greenbacks"? asks Mr. Lane, and then answers the question with the threadbare arguments of Pendleton & Co. in favor of repudiating the pledge of the Government and discharging our [illegible] promises with other promises. The miraculous conversion of Mr. Tilden to the greenback theory appears to have reached clear down through the file of Democratic politicians about Washington, so they are all clamoring for cheap money now. If Mr. Lane thinks the Democrats of this State are ready to form the tail to his rag-baby kite, we hope and believe he will discover on election day that he has made a fatal mistake in his calculations. Every greenback speech he makes from this time to the day of election will make votes for Williams; and he has so committed himself on the subject that it will be quite as damaging for him to attempt to run through the race on the other track.

A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NEEDED.

By a law of the United States elections for Congress are required to be held in November. By the constitution of our State our general elections are held on the first Monday of June. The act of Congress is of recent date, having gone into effect the present year. This makes it necessary for Oregon to have two elections, one in June for State and county [illegible] and one in November for Congressmen. Elections are expensive luxuries, of which one in two years is quite as much as our people can well afford. The legislature has no power to change the law on the subject, one being a law of Congress within the legitimate sphere of Congressional authority, and the other the constitution, which is above the legislature. We suggest to the legislature that steps should be taken to have the Constitution amended in this respect. At best the change can not be made effectual until two years more have elapsed. The amendment must be proposed by one legislature, then lie over to the next, when it is again acted upon, and if the second legislature shall agree with the first in recommending the amendment, it is then submitted to the people for final acceptance or rejection. It is presumed there would be no objection to the change, so as to have the general State election held at the same time with the Congressional election, as heretofore. There is nothing to be lost by the change so far as we can see, and there is to be gained the expense of one election. Let some member formulate the proper amendment into a joint resolution and present it, and it will probably go through without question.

For about twenty years Lexington's 7:19¾ headed the record as the best time for four miles ever made. Every attempt to equal it failed, until Fellowcraft succeeded in beating it a quarter of a second. To-day's dispatches bring the news that Ten Broeck, at Louisville, has thrown the achievements of both Lexington and Fellowcraft far in the shade by running four miles against time in the wonderfully quick time of seven minutes and fifteen seconds. To accomplish this feat Ten Broeck had to run at the average rate of a mile in one minute and forty-eight and three-quarter seconds, or very nearly the time made by Tom Merry in the mile dash won by him at Hillsboro. Ten Broeck, a few days ago, made the best time for three miles on record. He has proved himself by these performances a race horse of first class powers.

The whole truth about the Bulgarian atrocities will be brought out by the mixed tribunal, of which Mr. Baring, secretary of the British legation, is a member, which has been organized to try the participators and to punish those responsible for them. Since the admissions made by the English ministers that these atrocities have been the cause of a change in the relations which existed between England and Turkey, there is no reason why Mr. Baring should conceal the truth, or try to shield the guilty parties.

The Turks seem bent on self destruction. The universal indignation and horror caused by the atrocities committed by them in Bulgaria should have taught them a lesson; but it seems that they are careless of the good opinion of the world, for the news comes to us of the recent massacre of 700 Christians by the fanatical Mussulmans.

ON THE 5TH DAY OF OCTOBER, 1876, AT my farm in Pleasant Hill, Lane county, Oregon, at 10 o'clock, A. M., I will offer at public auction my entire outfit of Agricultural Implements and Farm Tools, Household Furniture, 32 head Stock Cattle, 12 head Swine, 50 pure Light Brahma Chickens, 1 lot Turkeys and Guinea Fowls, for Cash in hand.

Owing to important business that requires my immediate attention elsewhere, and will admit of no further delay, I offer on accommodating terms, one farm of 242 acres—title perfect—and consisting of 125 acres rich bottom land, the rest upland, covered with as fine timber as grows in the State; 150 acres under good substantial fence in ten different enclosures; 80 acres plow land; 30 acres under good cultivation; an orchard containing over 300 apple, pear, plum, peach and cherry trees, of the best varieties, and grape vines enough to set one acre, a good comfortable house 16x30 feet, with two stone fire places; a living spring runs water to the door; a new barn and stable 20x56, full to the top of Hay, Wheat and Oats; 1 wagon, 1 set Concord harness, 1 span mares, 1 colt, 3 saddles, 1 English double barrel Fowling Piece.

Also, adjoining, 1 farm, title perfect, of 80 acres, log cabin, 30 acres under fence in timothy, rich bottom land. These two farms are situated 4 miles east of Creswell depot, 12 miles southeast of Eugene, one mile south of Oregon Military Road, from which runs a county road to this farm. The range for sheep and cattle cannot be surpassed in the State. It is well watered.

Parties desirous of securing a good home in a pleasant and healthful location are invited to call and see for themselves.

Either or both places can be bought on easy terms on or before the day of sale

RUPTURE!

No More Metallic Trusses Used!

No More Suffering from Iron Hoops or Steel Springs!

THE SUPERIORITY OF OUR ELASTIC Trusses over the rigid Iron Hoops, which in former days were the only resource of the ruptured, admits of NO ARGUMENT.

By means of this appliance the pressure on the Rupture itself can be made uniform and continuous, and to the extent required in each case, until a slight inflammation of the parts is secured, and the consequent effusion of lymph which is essential to a healing process, and from this time to the conclusion of the treatment, the pressure, being entirely within the control of the patient, can be lessened daily as the adhesion progresses and the body becomes sound. All cases of reducible Hernia are permanently relieved without regard to the age of the patient or the duration of the injury, while in its action it is wholly free from all the cruelty that has characterized the treatment of the malady with tortuous Metal Trusses from the earliest age to the present day. Your attention is called to the following facts:

1st—There are no springs to press upon or to injure the back.

2d—It is simple in construction, and not liable to get out of order.

3d—This instrument is worn with perfect ease while riding horseback.

4th—The Rupture is retained and the pressure the same while in any position.

5th—It has none of the injurious results of metallic Trusses.

6th—It will perform radical cures when all others fail.

7th—It is worn with ease and comfort night and day, which cannot be said truthfully of an metal Truss whatever.

Experience shows that all tempered spring Trusses necessarily press upon and often disease parts of the body that before were in a perfectly healthy condition. Lumbago and other equally distressing ailments are not unfrequently the outgrowth of such pressure, and in view of this fact it becomes a matter of decided consequence to avoid like calamities, if possible.

Examination Free. The closest scrutiny of physicians solicited.

Beware of Bogus articles called Elastic Trusses. Dr. ROWE, Inventor and Patentee of Elastic Trusses. All parties infringing either by sale or manufacture, will be dealt with in such manner as the law provides.

WASHINGTON COUNTY FAIR

Third Day.

HILLSBORO Sept 27 1876

By dint of growling and grumbling of patrons and extra efforts of the directors we were treated to a very quiet and orderly night, but this was not accomplished without the ejection of a number of the Jakes who thought they could not be subdued by country Jakes even though wearing a red sash but were glad to sneak back and keep very quiet A few dead drunks were hauled off and stacked away in a convenient bay mow near by the grounds after which order reigned supreme and the force of extra marshals enjoyed a sinecure

AMUSEMENTS

Were freely patronized by the rather shut crowd who spend their nights in the neighborhood T A Wood succeeded in drawing a good patronage for his show though sword swallowing fire eating Marionettes etc are getting to be an old song with our fair going population Still the Major having foresight enough to engage the only band on the grounds and get up a little gift distribution succeeds by doing his own talking in getting a fair house every time

The Coplen Brothers with their show of enormous bones are not doing as well as they ought to Their exhibition is something that every one can remember as food for profitable thought which is more than can be said of the majority of shows Frank Frost who travels with the circus in spite of the advertisement of no side shows has on exhibition some very intelligent dwarfs albinos etc and a fat woman that is certainly a credit to her feeding but ought only to be showed in the cool of the evening What person of any sympathising nature can endure with the thermometer at 90°, to gaze on 700 pounds of fat upon one poor human frame But the center of attraction last night and this afternoon was

THE BIG CIRCUS

Of Montgomery Queen After the repeated visits of poor shows with flaming bills it is a positive relief to say of a circus that it is no humbug Many of the performers last night and notably Austin the clown made the too common mistake of cutting their acts to a thin house, but in spite of that, the popular verdict is that this is the best circus ever brought to Oregon I might mention the trapeze act of the Mathews family which is daring and elegant but was badly cut last night the splendid exhibition of training in the black horse ridden by Madam Brown and particularly the bareback riding of Miss Brown and that of Sebastian who is perfection on horseback and also has a son 8 years of age who will be a star Madame D Atalie is a marvel of strength and grace and her two children poise and tumble in a most pleasing manner The funniest thing imaginable is the closing of the Kennebel Brothers and I think I have said enough to convince your readers that your humble servant is pleased with the show and in this I am backed by all who have expressed their opinion in my hearing to day I ought to mention the animals, but they will speak for themselves Most Webfeet have never seen a real live elephant nor many other of the animals on exhibition here

PREMIUMS

Were awarded this forenoon for stock S G Reed took seven first premiums all these were for Durhams also three first for Ayrshires, and first and second for best bull of any breed A Luelling took the first for bull calf and yearling cow and second for three year old cow in Ayrshires B F Stewart took four first in Holsteins, and two first and one second in graded cattle M Eldowney took the second premium for graded cow

PROFITABLE COWS

B E Stewart furnished two sworn statements concerning milking cows His thoroughbred Holstein cow running on green pasture from the 20th to the 30th of April gave 43 pounds as the lowest and 48 pounds as the highest daily yield of milk From the highest quantity was made five pounds of cheese from a single day's milking and on another day two pounds of butter A half breed Holstein with her first calf gave about three-fourths of the above quantities in July when feed was dry Nice cows, those, and handy to have in the house "

The books are all out and the judges busy in other departments so that it will be difficult to find out who takes premiums though I propose to speak to morrow of some good articles regardless of the opinions of judges

I forgot yesterday to mention the walking match There were four entries one each by Wm West Jas Scoggins, Wm Bigham and Alfred Libberts But little interest was manifested as the crowd cannot be held while the horses are so long gone but really more attention ought to be paid to this most useful gait of the saddle horse Larger premiums would help a little but it will require some great mind to invent a plan before sufficient attention can be drawn to the development of horses in that line In this case no remarkable qualities were manifested and the same match can be beaten any day without trying in any neighborhood where there are fair saddle horses in use Wm West took the first premium and Wm Bigham the second but all the horses were afterward ruled off except ing Libberts, who took first money

ACCIDENT

Just before the horses were to start this afternoon in the trotting match, as Mr West was warming up Coggan s 3 year old Pathfinder on the track, he shied at some object and threw the driver when he took a spin on his own hook First he whirled several times in a small circle with his sulky on the upper or lower side alternately then he started at break neck speed up the track Several men attempted to stop him but could not succeed without imminent risk to themselves Finally he broke through the fence dashed through the crowd of men women and children then through the sheds about the stables scattering terror splinters, and a stove and kitchen of Mr. I B Hoover s in all directions and was finally brought up against a wall with no bones broken

Notwithstanding his injuries the colt was soon started in the trotting race against Joe Taylor s black gelding who trotted round leisurely in 3 20 odd when Coggan s horse was withdrawn, and Taylor claimed the race The question is still in dispute but likely to be no race as the society say they will give no purse unless good time is made

To morrow the programme is to be as follows At 10 o clock A M—parade of all animals which have been awarded premiums under direction of the marshal At 3 o clock P M—plowing match by boys under fifteen years purse $1 $5 At 4 o clock P M—fastest running horse, mare or gelding ½ mile and repeat sweepstakes, entrance $5 to be added to the purse purse $50

ROBBERY

Mr J S Heller of Hillsboro had a splendid watch and chain and sixty dollars in gold taken from his pockets yesterday afternoon This morning one of the directors found the watch in a show case of some kind of a thieving game The keeper of the game claimed to have traded another watch for it but Mr W K Jackson took charge of the watch until the affair is settled It is to be hoped that it will terminate in a permanent location of some light fingered gent in an official position of neither honor nor profit Several parties have complained to the marshals of having been robbed but in most cases they lost their money trying to rob some one else One old gentleman lent a stranger $10 to bet on a dead thing and you know the rest of the story Another says he was as good as robbed in a game of speculation out of $100 The only question in the speculation was how much money he had and how long it would last In all such cases the law provides a remedy but it is very hard to apply it

THE WALLOWA VALLEY DIFFICULTY

Through the courtesy of Col H Clay Wood we have been permitted to make extracts from the following letters received by that officer from Lieut A G Forse

UPPER WALLOWA VALLEY Sept 11, 1876

A A General Department of the Columbia, Portland Oregon—Sir As stated in my communication of the 9th I continued the march to the Wallowa valley and reached the middle valley about 1 A M on the 10th inst, camping at the house of the Tulley brothers where I found about 50 armed men, also several families who there sought protection During the morning one or two more families arrived All the citizens of the middle valley with whom I conversed and one or two from the upper valley stated that the Indians of late had been very impudent letting down their fences and allowing their stallions to run at large with the settlers' brood mares and last Sunday week at the pow-wow at McNall s had demanded of the settlers to give up young McNall and Finley to Joseph or leave before the next Sunday, and if they did not he would run them out and burn their houses This threat was the cause of calling upon the citizens of the neighborhood and Grand Ronde valley for protection On the evening of the 9th Joseph and his band fully mounted and armed, stripped to their breech clouts and in their war paint, to the number of about 70 surrounded Mr Wright s house where several families had sought protection and told them that they must leave or they would kill them

One person who was present, said he did not hear any threats made against those people but he did hear Joseph say that if the Grand Ronders wanted to fight, he would meet them half way the next day He afterward revoked that and said that he would meet them about a mile this side his camp on a bluff and would be ready for them all day About 8 45 on the morning of the 10th, I moved the company to the upper valley in company with part of the citizens, the rest remained behind to protect the families at Tulley s Upon arriving at Veasey s I left my men and citizens and, accompanied by Mr Veasey started for Joseph s camp, seven miles distant, to get an interview

About a mile this side of his camp I found Joseph and his band mounted and posted on the bluff mentioned An Indian came to meet us I told him I wanted to talk with Joseph He started off returned in a few minutes and said that Joseph wanted to talk I then went to where Joseph and his band were I asked him (through an interpreter) what was the cause of this trouble He said it was on account of the killing of the Indian by McNall and Finley I asked him if he would be satisfied if McNall and Finley were tried by the civil authorities, that neither the military nor Indians had any jurisdiction in the matter He said he would I then asked why he had made threats He said it was because some of his Indians had come from the citizens and told him that those armed citizens had said they were going to kill Joseph and his people I then asked him why he did not go on the Lapwai agency He informed me that in the interview with Major Wood at Lapwai in July the subject was mentioned and that it had been referred to Washington and that a commission of five men were to come from there and decide the matter that one of his Indians had come from the agency a day or two before but had heard nothing So thinking that I might be interfering in some agreement between Joseph and the government I let the subject drop and told Joseph that he must keep his Indians out of the valleys I told him that so long as he was here to remain where he was at the lake and to keep his stallions and horses by themselves that the Indians should not interfere with the settlers and designated the line beyond which his Indians should not go except when they wanted to go to the settlements to buy provisions etc to all of which he said he would agree To show his good faith, he said he would throw away the bullets they had put in their guns for the purpose of killing the whites who had come in to kill him which he did by forming his Indians in single rank and discharging their pieces, after which I left him

I feel satisfied that the cause of the trouble originated from the killing of the Indian If McNall and Finley had been arrested tried and punished there would have been no trouble Joseph finding they were not punished, wanted to punish them himself consequently the demand for them and threats, and I am pretty well convinced that if the troops had not arrived when they did, there would have been bloodshed

Since the above letter was received another has come to hand from Lieutenant Forse, under date of the 18th instant, which says.

I have the honor to state that since my report of the 11th instant, written the next day after my interview with Joseph everything has been quiet Most of the citizens who left the valley have returned On the 11th instant I sent word to McNall and Finley by two of their friends advising them to go to Union and surrender themselves, and was to be notified of the result But not having heard anything definite of their actions I sent on the 14th instant and found that they had taken my advice and on the same day had a long talk with Joseph, in which I urged him to send the two Indians who were witnesses to the killing to Union as recommended by Judge Brainard With great reluctance he consented He was afraid the whites would harm them I told him that they would not be molested, and to see that they got there safely I would send them in charge of a non commissioned officer which I did on the morning of the 15th with a letter to Judge Brainard requesting him to see that they were taken care of, and if it were possible should the court not be in session to let them return as Joseph promised to send them again when they would be needed

Joseph says he is going to leave shortly to hunt deer but I do not think he will do so until the return of those two Indians from Union After they return I will have another talk with Joseph and give him to understand that in case the troops leave, he must conduct himself as if they were present after which I see no necessity of remaining, as I feel satisfied that Joseph intends to keep his promises

Henry A Scoville accidentally shot and killed his partner Frank Strauss of Red Warrior I I on the 15th, while the pair were climbing a mountain near Rocky Bar, I T

Messrs LILIENTHAL & Co

Gentlemen I have just returned from a trip through Kentucky, Ohio and West Virginia, under for the purpose of examining the various distilleries in th and I am now than ever confi in the opinion, so often expressed to you, that your distillery is the most complete, and ted of any in the United States.

The careful selection of your grain, the purity of the water, the slower and more cautious method of distillation, is what gives the NOBLE WHISKY its superior qualities, and has gained for it the reputation which it universally sustains throughout the United States

Gratified that the 20 years devoted to the distillation of the CYRUS NOBLE WHISKY has been attended with such results, I trust I may be spared to continue my in its inter t, and that of its any pat and consu

TO THE PUBLIC.—The our Cyrus Noble Whisky has enjoyed in ical practice throughout the and Europe for a period of nearly 20 prompts us to bring it to the notice of the Public of the Pacific Coast for similar use.

Its absolute purity, having by found to be entirely free from FUSEL OIL and the improved quality its being retained in store for at to 6 years after distillation, has given to the Physician a remedy long sought for in his own Materia Medica

The we hold in the treatment of NERVOUS PROSTRATION and is at a low ebb, as is frequently in to our country, of DY whole train of of the LIVER and the BLOOD of CONSUMPTION, as a disinfectant death are all highly gratifying to us, and we believe we owe it to our here.

[illegible] DAY OF ATONEMENT.—Last evening at [illegible] commenced the Hebrew festival [illegible] (Day of covering, of seeking [illegible]). It is the last day of the ten days initiated by the "Days of Memo[illegible]" (of rousing the soul from [illegible] to a spiritual revival), commonly [illegible] New Year. WASHINGTON COUNTY FAIR.

Third Day.

HILLSBORO Sept 27, 1876

By dint of growling and grumbling of patrons and extra efforts of the directors we were treated to a very quiet and orderly night but this was not accomplished without the ejection of a number of the Jakes, who thought they could not be subdued by country Jakes even though wearing a red sash but were glad to sneak back and keep very quiet A few dead drunks were hauled off and stacked away in a convenient hay mow near by the grounds after which order reigned supreme and the force of extra marshals enjoyed a sinecure

AMUSEMENTS

Were freely patronized by the rather slim crowd who spend their nights in the neighborhood T A Wood succeeded in drawing a good patronage for his show, though sword swallowing fire eating, Marionettes etc are getting to be an old song with our fair going population Still the Major having foresight enough to engage the only band on the grounds and get up a little gift distribution succeeds by doing his own talking in getting a fair house every time

The Coplen Brothers, with their show of enormous bones are not doing as well as they ought to Their exhibition is something that every one can remember as food for profitable thought which is more than can be said of the majority of shows Frank Frost who travels with the circus, in spite of the advertisement of "no side shows" has on exhibition some very intelligent dwarfs albinos etc, and a fat woman that is certainly a credit to her feeding but ought only to be showed in the cool of the evening What person of any sympathising nature can endure with the thermometer at 90°, to gaze on 750 pounds of fat upon one poor human frame? But the center of attraction last night and this afternoon was

Of Montgomery Queen After the repeated visits of poor shows with flaming bills it is a positive relief to say of a circus that it is no humbug Many of the performers last night, and notably Austin, the clown, made the too common mistake of cutting their acts to a thin house, but, in spite of that, the popular verdict is that this is the best circus ever brought to Oregon I might mention the trapeze act of the Mathews family, which is daring and elegant but was badly cut last night, the splendid exhibition of training in the black horse ridden by Madam Brown and particularly the bareback riding of Miss Brown and that of Sebastian who is perfection on horseback, and also has a son 8 years of age who will be a star Madame D'Atalie is a marvel of strength and grace, and her two children poise and tumble in a most pleasing manner The funniest thing imaginable is the closing of the Kennebel Brothers, and I think I have said enough to convince your readers that your humble servant is pleased with the show, and in this I am backed by all who have expressed their opinion in my hearing to day I ought to mention the animals, but they will speak for themselves Most Webfeet have never seen a real live elephant nor many other of the animals on exhibition here

PREMIUMS

Were awarded this forenoon for stock S G Reed took seven first premiums, all these were for Durhams, also three first for Ayrshires, and first and second for best bull of any breed A Luelling took the first for bull calf and yearling cow and second for three year old cow in Ayrshires B F Stewart took four first in Holsteins, and two first and one second in graded cattle M Eldowney took the second premium for graded cow

PROFITABLE COWS.

B E Stewart furnished two sworn statements concerning milking cows His thoroughbred Holstein cow, running on green pasture from the 20th to the 30th of April gave 43 pounds as the lowest and 48 pounds as the highest daily yield of milk. From the highest quantity was made five pounds of cheese from a single day's milking and on another day two pounds of butter. A half breed Holstein with her first calf gave about three-fourths of the above quantities in July when feed was dry. Nice cows, those, and "andy to have in the 'ouse"

The books are all out and the judges busy in other departments so that it will be difficult to find out who takes premiums, though I propose to speak to morrow of some good articles regardless of the opinions of judges

I forgot yesterday to mention the walking match There were four entries, one each by Wm West Jas Scoggins, Wm Bigham and Alfred Ebberts But little interest was manifested, as the crowd cannot be held while the horses are so long gone but really more attention ought to be paid to this most useful gait of the saddle horse Larger premiums would help a little but it will require some great mind to invent a plan before sufficient attention can be drawn to the development of horses in that line In this case no remarkable qualities were manifested and the same match can be beaten any day without trading in any neighborhood where there are fair saddle horses in use Wm West took the first premium and Wm Bigham the second but all the horses were afterwards ruled off except ing Ebberts', who took first money

Just before the horses were to start this afternoon in the trotting match as Mr West was warming up Coggan's 3 year old Pathfinder on the track he shied at some object and threw the driver when he took a spin on his own hook First he whirled several times in a small circle with his sulky on the upper or lower side alternately then he started at break neck speed up the track Several men attempted to stop him, but could not succeed without imminent risk to themselves Finally he broke through the fence dashed through the crowd of men women and children then through the sheds about the stables scattering terror, splinters, and a stove and kitchen of Mr I B Hoover's in all directions and was finally brought up against a wall with no bones broken

Notwithstanding his injuries the colt was soon started in the trotting race against Joe Taylor's black gelding who trotted round leisurely in 3 20 odd when Coggan s horse was withdrawn, and Taylor claimed the race The question is still in dispute but likely to be no race, as the society say they will give no purse unless good time is made

To morrow the programme is to be as follows At 10 o clock A M—parade of all animals which have been awarded premiums under direction of the marshal At 1 o clock P M—plowing match by boys under fifteen years purse $1 $5 At 4 o clock P M—last est running horse, mare or gelding, ½ mile and repeat sweepstakes entrance $50 to be added to the purse purse $50

ROBBERY

Mr J S Heller of Hillsboro had a splendid watch and chain and sixty dollars in gold taken from his pockets yesterday afternoon This morning one of the directors found the watch in a show case of some kind of a thieving game The keeper of the game claimed to have traded another watch for it but Mr W K Jackson took charge of the watch until the affair is settled It is to be hoped that it will terminate in a permanent location of some light-fingered gent in an official position of neither honor nor profit Several parties have complained to the marshals of having been robbed but in most cases they lost their money trying to rob some one else One old gentleman lent a stranger $10 to bet on a dead thing, and you know the rest of the story yourself Another says he was [illegible] as robbed in a game of speculation out of $100 The only question in the speculation was how much money he had and how long it would last In all such cases the law provides a remedy but it is very hard to apply it.

To day is closing, lucky [illegible] entries are reaching up to usual figures and [illegible] the main pieces [illegible] the fair will be far from a failure

THE WALLOWA VALLEY DIFFICULTY

Through the courtesy of Col H Clay Wood we have been permitted to make extracts from the following letters received by that officer from Lieut A G Forse

UPPER WALLOWA VALLEY, Sept 11, 1876

A A General Department of the Columbia, Portland Oregon—SIR. As stated in my communication of the 9th, I continued the march to the Wallowa valley and reached the middle valley about 1 A M on the 10th inst, camping at the house of the Tulley brothers where I found about 50 armed men, also several families who there sought protection During the morning one or two more families arrived All the citizens of the middle valley with whom I conversed and one or two from the upper valley, stated that the Indians of late had been very impudent letting down their fences and allowing their stallions to run at large with the settlers brood mares and last Sunday week at the pow wow at McNall s had demanded of the settlers to give up young McNall and Finley to Joseph or leave before the next Sunday, and if they did not he would run them out and burn their houses This threat was the cause of calling upon the citizens of the neighborhood and Grand Ronde valley for protection On the evening of the 9th Joseph and his band fully mounted and armed, stripped to their breech clouts, and in their war paint, to the number of about 70, surrounded Mr Wright's house where several families had sought protection, and told them that they must leave or they would kill them

One person who was present, said he did not hear any threats made against those people but he did hear Joseph say that if the Grand Ronders wanted to fight, he would meet them half way the next day He afterward revoked that and said that he would meet them about a mile this side his camp on a bluff, and would be ready for them all day About 8 45 on the morning of the 10th, I moved the company to the upper valley in company with part of the citizens the rest remained behind to protect the families at Tulley's Upon arriving at Veasey's, I left my men and citizens, and, accompanied by Mr Veasey, started for Joseph's camp, seven miles distant to get an interview.

About a mile this side of his camp, I found Joseph and his band mounted and posted on the bluff mentioned. An Indian came to meet us I told him I wanted to talk with Joseph He started off returned in a few minutes and said that Joseph wanted to talk I then went to where Joseph and his band were I asked him (through an interpreter) what was the cause of this trouble He said it was on account of the killing of the Indian by McNall and Finley I asked him if he would be satisfied if McNall and Finley were tried by the civil authorities, that neither the military nor Indians had any jurisdiction in the matter He said he would I then asked why he had made threats. He said it was because some of his Indians had come from the citizens and told him that those armed citizens had said they were going to kill Joseph and his people I then asked him why he did not go on the Lapwai agency He informed me that in the interview with Major Wood at Lapwai in July the subject was mentioned and that it had been referred to Washington and that a commission of five men were to come from there and decide the matter, that one of his Indians had come from the agency a day or two before but had heard nothing? So thinking that I might be interfering in some agreement between Joseph and the government, I let the subject drop and told Joseph that he must keep his Indians out of the valleys I told him that so long as he was here to remain where he was at the lake, and to keep his stallions and horses by themselves, that the Indians should not interfere with the settlers and designated the line beyond which his Indians should not go, except when they wanted to go to the settlements to buy provisions, etc, to all of which he said he would agree. To show his good faith, he said he would throw away the bullets they had put in their guns for the purpose of killing the whites who had come in to kill him, which he did by forming his Indians in single rank and discharging their pieces, after which I left him

I feel satisfied that the cause of the trouble originated from the killing of the Indian If McNall and Finley had been arrested tried and punished there would, have been no trouble Joseph, finding they were not punished, wanted to punish them himself consequently the demand for them and threats, and I am pretty well convinced that if the troops had not arrived when they did, there would have been bloodshed

Since the above letter was received another has come to hand from Lieutenant Forse, under date of the 18th instant, which says

"I have the honor to state that since my report of the 11th instant, written the next day after my interview with Joseph everything has been quiet Most of the citizens who left the valley have returned On the 11th instant I sent word to McNall and Finley by two of their friends advising them to go to Union and surrender themselves, and was to be notified of the result but not having heard anything definite of their actions I sent on the 14th instant and found that they had taken my advice, and on the same day had a long talk with Joseph in which I urged him to send the two Indians who were witnesses to the killing to Union as recommended by Judge Brainard. With great reluctance he consented He was afraid the whites would harm them I told him that they would not be molested, and to see that they got there safely I would send them in charge of a non-commissioned officer, which I did on the morning of the 15th with a letter to Judge Brainard requesting him to see that they were taken care of and if it were possible, should the court not be in session to let them return, as Joseph promised to send them again when they would be needed

Joseph says he is going to leave shortly to hunt deer but I do not think he will do so until the return of those two Indians from Union After they return I will have another talk with Joseph and give him to understand that in case the troops leave, he must conduct himself as if they were present after which I see no necessity of remaining, as I feel satisfied that Joseph intends to keep his promises

Henry A Scoville accidentally shot and killed his partner Frank Strauss of Red Warrior [illegible], on the 15th, while the pair were climbing a mountain near Rocky Bar, I T

LAND FOR IMMIGRANTS.

Choice Farms for Sale.

4,000 ACRES, IN QUANTITIES TO SUIT PURCHASERS.

230 ACRES DUE SOUTH AND ADJOINING the Railroad Depot at Salem, all under cultivation, and suitable for grain or vegetables.

940 Acres, four miles southeast of Salem, on the railroad, with Mill creek running through it. This is the choicest farming land in Marion county, with fine springs, consisting in part of the old Rector donation claim, on which I raised the past year fifty bushels of wheat and three tons of timothy per acre. The first crop of oats ever raised on part of this land measured ninety-four bushels per acre, grain weighed and ground chained by Mr. Alfred Stanton, of Salem.

2,700 Acres of prairie and light brush land, with timber for farming purposes, bounded by the Willamette River for four miles, beautiful lake on the east, boat landings all along the river, commencing four miles north of Salem—all choice grain land—the largest and most suitable body of land to be found in the Willamette Valley to be purchased by a colony. To be sold from $15 to $25 per acre. This land will all be immediately resurveyed, and can be sold in larger or smaller parcels, to suit purchasers. It can be subdivided to the best possible advantage, and I can offer any person or persons, or colony of persons, desiring to purchase homes in the best part of the Willamette Valley, near the city of Salem and within reach of the best social advantages, as well as most favorably located with respect to markets, greater advantages, on more favorable terms, than they can ever expect to realize again.
